S248730

E060438 Fourth Appellate District, Div. 2

PEOPLE v. PEREZ (JOSE LUIS)

Petition for review granted; issues limited

Defendant Chavez's petition for review is granted. The issue to be briefed and argued is limited to the following: Did defendant's failure to object at trial, before People v. Sanchez (2016) 63 Cal.4th 665 was decided, forfeit his claim that a gang expert's testimony related case-specific hearsay in violation of his Sixth Amendment right of confrontation? Defendant Perez's petition for review is denied.

Votes: Cantil-Sakauye, C. J., Chin, Corrigan, Liu, Cuéllar, and Kruger, JJ.

S249859PLANNING &
CONSERVATION LEAGUE v.
PADILLA (ALEX)/(DRAPER)

Order to show cause issued

Time constraints require the court to decide immediately whether to permit Proposition 9 to be placed on the November 6, 2018, ballot pending final resolution of this matter. Although our past decisions establish that it is usually more appropriate to review challenges to ballot propositions or initiative measures after an election (Costa v. Superior Court (2006) 37 Cal.4th 986, 1005), we have also made clear that in some instances, when a substantial question has been raised regarding the proposition's validity and the "hardships from permitting an invalid measure to remain on the ballot" outweigh the harm potentially posed by "delaying a proposition to a future election," it may be appropriate to review a proposed measure before it is placed on the ballot. (Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Assn. v. Padilla (2016) 62 Cal.4th 486, 494; see also id., at pp. 496-497; accord, American Federation of Labor v. Eu (1984) 36 Cal.3d 687, 697.) Because significant questions have been raised regarding the proposition's validity, and because we conclude that the potential harm in permitting the measure to remain on the ballot outweighs the potential harm in delaying the proposition to a future election, respondent Alex Padilla, as Secretary of State of the State of California, is directed to refrain from placing Proposition 9 on the November 6, 2018, ballot. Both respondent Padilla and real party in interest Timothy Draper are ordered to show cause before this court, when the above matter is called on calendar, why the relief sought by petitioner, Planning and Conservation League, should not be granted. The returns of respondent and real party in interest are to be served and filed on or before Monday, August 20, 2018. Petitioner is ordered to serve and file its reply within 30 days of the timely-filed returns.

Votes: Cantil-Sakauye, C. J., Chin, Corrigan, Liu, Cuéllar, and Kruger, JJ.

S248671 B277941 Second Appellate District, Div. 2 PEOPLE v. VAUGHN
(ANTWOINE)

Petition for review granted; briefing deferred

Defendant Love's petition for review is granted. Further action in this matter is deferred pending consideration and disposition of a related issue in People v. Mateo, S232674 (see Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.512(d)(2)), or pending further order of the court. Submission of additional briefing, pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 8.520, is deferred pending further order of the court. Defendant Vaughn's petition for review is denied.

Votes: Cantil-Sakauye, C. J., Chin, Corrigan, Liu, Cuéllar, and Kruger, JJ.

Referee appointed

Based on the record in this matter and good cause appearing:

The Honorable William C. Ryan, Judge of the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, is appointed to serve as a referee in this proceeding. He will take evidence and make findings of fact on the following questions regarding the case of People v. Prentice Juan Snow (Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles No. A560682; Judge Jack B. Tso):

1. Why did petitioner's trial counsel decide not to take any actions on petitioner's behalf at the penalty phase of his trial? On what investigation, discussions with petitioner or others, and other factors did trial counsel base their decision?

2. What would a reasonably competent attorney have decided to do or not do with regard to representing petitioner at the penalty phase based on the investigation, discussions with petitioner or others, and other factors that trial counsel considered in making their decision not to take any action on petitioner's behalf?
3. Would a reasonably competent attorney have conducted other investigation or discussions, taken any other actions, or considered any other factors that petitioner's trial counsel did not do or consider before making a decision regarding the defense's penalty phase strategy? If so, as a result of those other actions and considerations, what decision would a reasonably competent attorney have made regarding the defense's penalty phase strategy?
4. If a reasonably competent attorney would have made different decisions regarding the defense's penalty phase strategy, what different actions would a reasonably competent attorney have taken?
5. How might have the different actions a reasonably competent attorney would have taken affected the outcome of the penalty phase of petitioner's trial in light of the strength and credibility of any evidence that might have been presented by the defense, the potential to undermine the prosecution's case in aggravation through cross-examination or rebuttal evidence, the potential rebuttal evidence the prosecution might have presented in response to the defense's actions, the persuasiveness of any arguments trial counsel might have made, and any other factors and considerations?

It is further ordered that the referee prepare and submit to this court a report of the proceedings conducted pursuant to this appointment, of the evidence adduced, and the findings of fact made. Any requests for discovery in this matter must be addressed to the referee.
