v. S.C. (COUNTY OF SAN

Petition for review granted; transferred to Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division Two, with directions to issue an order to show cause

The petition for review is granted. The matter is transferred to the Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division Two, with directions to vacate its August 30, 2019, order denying the petition for writ of mandate and/or prohibition and to issue an order to show cause why the relief sought in the petition should not be granted.

{A response to the order to show cause should pay special attention to (1) the limited nature of the disclosure of the juvenile records that plaintiff seeks, in that the identifying information of the minors would be redacted from the records and use of the records at trial would be limited to witness testimony about the records, (2) the circumstance that plaintiff is requesting juvenile records from a dependency case that she investigated as social worker, and (3) the substantial relevance of the requested juvenile records to the legitimate need of plaintiff to prove her claim for whistleblower liability, in that the records are evidence of the fraud plaintiff claims defendant committed in that dependency case and that fraud is an integral part of her case under Labor Code section 1102.5, where plaintiff must prove that defendant took an adverse employment action against her in retaliation for her disclosure of information of an unlawful act. }

The request for stay is denied without prejudice to petitioner requesting a stay in the Court of Appeal or Superior Court.

(ALFREDO)

Condemned inmate Alfredo Valencia's "Application for Release of Files, Records, and Confidential Materials," filed on June 17, 2019, is granted in part, and denied in part as follows. Valencia's counsel, the Federal Public Defender for the Central District of California, is granted access to the sealed and confidential materials contained in the record in People v. Valencia (S051451), except for: (1) Confidential "Case Info Sheet," pages 18-46; (2) Confidential "Case Info Sheet," pages 49-64; (3) Confidential "Case Info Sheet," pages 66-82; (4) Confidential "Case Info Sheet," pages 84-102; and (5) Confidential "Case Info Sheet," pages 104-112. The denial as to these items is without prejudice to filing a motion for access in the superior court. Valencia's application is denied as unnecessary as to the records in In re Alfredo Valencia (S167195) because those records do not contain any sealed or confidential documents.

Counsel must supply the personnel and equipment necessary to undertake the review and copying of the records to which access is granted. The review and copying must occur on the premises of the court. Counsel must not release or cause to be released any of the sealed or confidential material or any of the information contained therein to anyone other than counsel's agents without prior order of this court.
