Judicial Council Releases Annual Court Statistics Report

Trial Court Caseload Remains Over 10 Million Filings

San Francisco— Statewide filings in the California superior courts remained over 10 million for the second consecutive year, resulting in a slight decrease from last year but still a 20 percent increase over the past decade, according to the Judicial Council's 2011 Court Statistics Report (CSR).

The CSR provides detailed statewide caseload data for fiscal year 2009–2010 and 10-year trend data on a wide range of court business in the Supreme Court of California, the Courts of Appeal, and the superior courts in the state's 58 counties. Comprehensive county-level data for the most recent fiscal year are published in the online version of the report, along with a summary of the major filings trends, on the California Courts Web site at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/12941.htm>.

Article VI, section 6 of the California Constitution requires the Judicial Council to survey the condition of business in the state courts and to report and make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature. A snapshot of the court caseload data in the CSR follows.

Supreme Court*

- The Supreme Court issued 96 written opinions in fiscal year 2009–2010.
- Filings totaled 9,562, and dispositions totaled 9,439.
- Automatic appeals arising out of judgments of death totaled 29 cases, and the court disposed of 26 such appeals by written opinion.
- The Supreme Court ordered 4 Court of Appeal opinions depublished in this fiscal year.
