Executive Summary and Origin

The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee proposes amending rules 5.350 and 5.635 and revising forms FL-100, FL-120, FL-170, FL-200, FL-220, FL-230, FL-235, FL-250, FL-260, FL-270, FL-272, FL-273, FL-274, FL-276, FL-278, FL-280, FL-281, FL-285, FL-290, FL-300-INFO, FL-600, FL-610, FL-615, FL-686, and FL-694. The revisions are necessary to comply with amendments to the Family Code made by Assembly Bill 2684 (Bloom; Stats. 2018, ch. 876) that replaced the word “paternity” with “parentage” and made statutes gender neutral when possible.

1. Amend rules 5.350 and 5.635 to replace current text with the terms “voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity,” “parentage,” and “genetic testing” as needed;

This proposal has not been approved by the Judicial Council and is not intended to represent the views of the council, its Rules and Projects Committee, or its Policy Coordination and Liaison Committee. It is circulated for comment purposes only.

Changes based on AB 2684

The changes made to the Family Code by AB 2684 that require amending rules and revising various forms are as follows:

- Referring to any blood tests or genetic tests to determine paternity as “genetic testing (for parentage)”;
- Redefining the marital presumption of parentage by replacing references to “husband” and “wife” with “spouse”;
- Changing the name of the voluntary declaration of paternity to “voluntary declaration of parentage”;
- Redefining which parents may execute a voluntary declaration of parentage; and
- Amending the procedures and legal standards for setting aside a voluntary declaration of parentage.

These changes are consistent with other recent amendments to the Family Code that replaced the word “paternity” with “parentage” and an overall effort by the Legislature to make statutes gender neutral, when possible.

Currently, in order for a father to be named on the birth certificate of a child born in California outside of marriage, the mother and father both must sign a voluntary declaration of paternity, which is then filed with the California Department of Child Support Services (DCSS). Commencing January 1, 2020, this DCSS form will be called a “voluntary declaration of parentage.” This form is referenced multiple times on various Judicial Council forms. However, for many years to come litigants will still come forward for relief from the courts with the old version of the form, the “voluntary declaration of paternity.” Therefore, the committee proposes replacing all references in rules and on the forms with “voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity.” This way, both versions of the voluntary declaration will be included.

AB 2684 also removed all references to blood tests and instead uses the term “genetic testing.” While any references to blood tests already have been removed from most family law forms in order to ensure greater consistency throughout the forms, the committee also proposes replacing the terms “genetic tests” and “parentage tests” with “genetic testing.” Additionally, the council has already replaced “paternity” with “parentage” on many forms; however, the term still remains on several other forms. As such, the committee is also proposing replacing “paternity” with “parentage” as needed.

The great majority of the proposed revisions are technical in nature and entail simply replacing old terms with “voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity,” “parentage,” or “genetic testing,” as applicable. However, AB 2684 also significantly altered the rules regarding voluntary declarations of parentage or paternity, as follows:

- Expands who is eligible to sign a voluntary declaration of parentage to include not only an unmarried mother and the only possible genetic parent, but also a mother who gave birth to the child using assisted reproduction and the intended parent.
- Adds, to the list of when a voluntary declaration of parentage is void, that the child has a presumed parent, a court has entered a judgment of parentage, another person has signed a valid declaration of parentage, the child has a parent as the result of assisted reproduction other than the signatories, the person seeking to establish parentage is a sperm or ova donor, or a person asserts that they are a parent and the child was not conceived through assisted reproduction.
- Revises what must be on the voluntary declaration of parentage developed by the DCSS to comply with the changes in this legislation.
- Limits the ability of signatories to challenge a voluntary declaration of parentage after the existing 60-day rescission period to challenges based on fraud, duress, and material mistake of fact, consistent with federal law, with the requirement that any such challenge be brought within two years of the effective date of the voluntary declaration. (This limit does not apply to a voluntary declaration that is void.) Clarifies that, unless the voluntary declaration is void, the existing process to challenge a voluntary declaration of parentage may only be brought by a person who is not a signatory of the declaration and who has standing, is an alleged parent who is not a donor, or is a presumed parent.
- Provides that, by signing a voluntary declaration of parentage, a signatory submits to personal jurisdiction in California in an action challenging the declaration. Prevents the court from suspending legal responsibilities arising from the declaration, including the duty to pay child support, during the pendency of a challenge to the declaration. If the court order in the challenge to the declaration is at variance with the child’s birth certificate, the legislation requires the court to order a new birth certificate.<sup>1</sup>

Technical changes to forms

As stated above, the vast majority of the proposed revisions are technical in nature and entail simply replacing the old terms with the new terms. The committee proposes revising forms FL-600, FL-610, FL-615, FL-686, and FL-694 to reflect these changes, with no other major changes. The committee also proposes revising forms FL-272, FL-273, FL-274, FL-276, FL-278, FL-280, FL-281, FL-285, and FL-290 to reflect these technical changes and proposes further revisions as described below.

Making forms more accessible

Given the high percentage of self-represented litigants in the area of family law, one of the committee's longstanding goals is to make family law forms easier to understand by improving the layout of forms and using more plain language. With this goal in mind, the committee proposes revising several forms, as follows:

- Inserting an instruction box just below the case caption giving the filer basic instructions about the purpose of the form and how to file and serve the paperwork;
- Substituting "TO ALL PARTIES" for "TO (name)" so that the filer need not insert to whom the motion is being directed, leaving just the hearing information to be inserted by the court clerk;
- Replacing the term "set aside" with the more easily understood "cancel (set aside)";
- Inserting common-sense definitions of "marital presumption of parentage" and "guardian ad litem" where these terms are mentioned; and
- Including hyperlinks to other forms and content on the Judicial Council website that are referred to on the forms.

The committee proposes revising forms FL-272, FL-274, FL-280, and FL-285, as described above. Additionally, forms FL-272, FL-273, FL-274, FL-276, FL-278, FL-280, FL-281, FL-285, and FL-290 were retitled and revised by changing the term "set aside" to "cancel (set aside)." Moreover, commencing January 1, 2020, the law regarding setting aside a voluntary declaration of parentage will be listed in Family Code sections 7576 and 7577, rather than Family Code section 7575(c), where it currently resides. Therefore, any references in the footers of the forms to section 7575(c) have been replaced with references to sections 7576 and 7577.

Substantive changes to set aside rules (forms FL-273 and FL-280)

AB 2684 does substantially change the procedures and legal standards surrounding a request to set aside a voluntary declaration of parentage. Perhaps the biggest change is that the signatories of the voluntary declaration will no longer be able to request a set-aside under the grounds listed in Code of Civil Procedure section 473(b), but instead will only be able to request a set-aside based on fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact. Additionally, any such request must be filed by a signatory within two years of the effective date of the voluntary declaration. (If both signatories are adults when signing the form, the effective date is the date the form is filed with DCSS.) In general, the current set-aside rules are still the same for a nonsignatory to request relief. However, the local child support agency was removed from the statute as being one of the parties that could bring such a motion. Furthermore, when a nonsignatory files a motion to set aside, Family Code section 7577(e) states that notice must be provided to the signatories of the voluntary declaration and "any person entitled to notice under section 7635" (i.e., natural parent, presumed parent, and alleged genetic parent). Joinder is also mandatory for "any person who asserts a claim to parentage" and "every signatory" of the declaration. (Fam. Code, §§ 7577(e), 7578(a).)

The new set-aside rules have essentially created three separate classes of would-be filers: signatories of a voluntary declaration signed before January 1, 2020; signatories of a voluntary declaration signed on or after January 1, 2020; and nonsignatories. The committee proposes revising form FL-280 and item 4c of form FL-273 by making the forms more accessible as described above, and as follows:

- Inserting the new grounds for relief, with plain language definitions included in parentheses;
- Keeping the old grounds for relief; and
- Removing the section where the filer states, “I have complied with the time limits for filing this request to set aside ...” (form FL-280, item 10).

The committee felt that trying to create a form to specifically address the grounds for relief and time limits for each separate class of filer would make the forms too cumbersome and difficult to understand. Instead, the new grounds for relief are listed on the forms first, followed by the current grounds for relief with the following warning language inserted before the current defenses: “The following reasons apply only to voluntary declarations signed before January 1, 2020 or if you did not sign the declaration.”

Amendments to rules 5.350 and 5.635

The committee proposes amending rule 5.350 as follows:

- Replacing “voluntary declaration of paternity” with “voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity”;
- Replacing references to Family Code section 7575(c) with sections 7576 and 7577;
- Removing the reference to local child support agency in subdivision (b) to now read that only a “person who has signed a voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity, or another interested party,” may file a motion to set aside; and
- Including the new verbiage discussed above for the voluntary declaration and request to cancel (set aside) when referencing the motion Request for Hearing and Application to Cancel (Set Aside) Voluntary Declaration of Parentage or Paternity (form FL-280).

The committee proposes amending rule 5.635 as follows:

- Replacing “voluntary declaration of paternity” with “voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity”;
- Replacing other references to paternity with “parentage”;
- Replacing “genetic tests” with “genetic testing”; and
- Replacing “man” and “father” with “person” and “parent,” respectively, in subdivision (c) consistent with prior amendments to Family Code section 7611.

Changes to nongovernmental forms

Making forms gender neutral

AB 2684 amends portions of the Family Code by making it gender neutral (e.g., replacing “paternity” with “parentage” and replacing references to “husband” and “wife” with “spouse” in section 7540). These changes are consistent with other amendments to the Family Code and California statutes in general made by the Legislature, as evidenced by Senate Bill 179 (Atkins; Stats. 2018, ch. 853) regarding gender identity and Assembly Concurrent Resolution 260 (Stats. 2018, res. ch. 190) regarding the use of gender-neutral language and pronouns.

The committee proposes taking this opportunity to further revise the forms by making them gender neutral in addition to making the revisions required by AB 2684. For example, any references to “his or her” have been removed (e.g., item 12 on form FL-170), as was the requirement of listing the sex of a child on a petition or response (forms FL-100, FL-120, FL-200, FL-220, FL-260, and FL-270). It should be noted that the gender of a child was never included on the governmental child support summons and complaint (FL-600) or answer (FL-610) since the adoption of those forms in 1997.

The committee seeks specific comment about the proposal to change form FL-200, item 1b, and form FL-220, item 2b. In the current form FL-200, item 1b allows the petitioner to identify as “the father.” However, this term may be too general, as a person may be a biological father, a presumed father, or an intended parent of a child under Family Code sections 7611 and 7630. Thus, the committee proposes changing both forms to allow a petitioner to specify that the petitioner wants to be determined as “a parent” of the child. In form FL-200, the petitioner will be able to state the reason why the court should make that determination. Specifically, item 1b would be changed to “Petitioner wants to be determined as a parent of the child because (specify): ... .”

However, not all references to gender-based terms could be removed from the revised forms. This is because, while AB 2684 did make many more sections of the Family Code gender neutral, the terms “previously established father” and “previously established mother” remained intact within the rules for setting aside a judgment of parentage. (See Fam. Code, §§ 7645–7649.5.) In fact, the word “father” appears 30 times in these rules, including references to “alleged father,” “genetic father,” and “biological father.” (Id.) Therefore, these terms were not removed from the revised forms, such as form FL-273.

Other changes

The committee proposes additional revisions to some of the nongovernmental family law forms to reflect changes in the law and make them consistent with other forms, as described below:

- FL-170, item 5c, would be revised to reflect an amendment to Family Code section 2110 under Senate Bill 340 (Stats. 2015, ch. 46), which allows a party to waive service of the preliminary declaration of disclosure as well as receipt of a final declaration of disclosure if the respondent was served with a summons by posting under a court order.
- In the titles of forms FL-200 and FL-220, “determine” would be substituted for “establish” with regard to the parental relationship. This change would reflect the use of the term “determine” in the Family Code. It would also cover actions in which a party is seeking to establish or disestablish a parental relationship;
- Form FL-170 would be revised to clarify that a party may only request restoration of a maiden name in an action for dissolution of marriage or nullity under Family Code section 2080;

- Forms FL-200, FL-220, and FL-260 would be revised to replace the term “visitation” with “visitation (parenting time)”;
- Forms FL-200 and FL-220 would be revised to refer to mediation as “mediation or child custody recommending counseling”;
- Form FL-220 would be revised to indicate that the party completing the form must complete and attach Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (form FL-105);
- Forms FL-170, FL-200, and FL-220 would be revised to insert check boxes for “Other Parent/Party” that were inadvertently omitted. This will allow a party to request orders affecting the rights or obligations of the other parent/party in the case; and
- Forms FL-170, FL-200, FL-260, and FL-270 would be revised to reorganize the presentation of the information to make the forms easier to complete.

Alternatives Considered

Amendments and revisions to the rules and forms listed above are required to reflect the statutory changes created by AB 2684. The committee considered two alternatives:

(1) recommending technical changes directly to the Judicial Council without circulating the rules and forms with the proposed changes for public comment; or (2) circulating the rules and forms to request specific comment on the proposed changes.

The committee chose the second option, as it would enable the committee to obtain suggestions for alternative language and would also give the public, justice partners, and the courts proper notice that the rules and forms would be altered. Additionally, while most of the revisions are technical in nature, the changes to the law regarding setting aside voluntary declarations of parentage are substantive.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

The committee anticipates that courts would incur some costs to revise forms and add them to their case management systems, train court staff about the revised forms included in this proposal, and possibly revise local court rules and forms so they are consistent with the changes adopted by the Judicial Council.

Request for Specific Comments

In addition to comments on the proposal as a whole, the advisory committee is interested in comments on the following:

- Does the proposal appropriately address the stated purpose?
- Do forms FL-273 and FL-280 correctly reflect the new rules regarding setting aside a voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity?
- Should form FL-200, item 1b, and form FL-220, item 2b, be changed to state, “Petitioner wants to be determined to be a parent of the child”?
- Should forms FL-200, FL-220, FL-260 and FL-270 require parties to attach a copy of the voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity when submitting the form to the court?

The advisory committee also seeks comments from courts on the following cost and implementation matters:

- Would the proposal provide cost savings? If so, please quantify.
- What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems?
- Would three months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date provide sufficient time for implementation?
- How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes?

NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. - A previously established father;
- A child;
- A legal representative of any of the above persons; or
- A local child support agency (LCSA).

This motion must be filed within the following time frames:

- (1) Within a two-year period commencing with the date:
  - (a) on which the previously established father knew or should have known of a judgment that established him as the father of the child (for example, the date a wage garnishment was served), or
  - (b) on which the previously established father knew or should have known of the existence of an action to adjudicate the issue of parentage (for example, the date of service of a summons), whichever is first, except as provided in paragraphs (2)–(4) below, if parentage was established by a voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity.
- (2) If you did not sign the declaration: within a two-year period commencing with the date of the child's birth, within one year of the date you either found out or should have found out that the declaration was signed because of fraud or perjury, or within six months of the entry of a court order or judgment for child custody, visitation, or support based on the declaration.
- (3) If the declaration was signed before January 1, 2020 and you signed the voluntary declaration: within a two-year period commencing with the date of the child's birth, within one year of the date you either found out or should have found out that the declaration was signed because of fraud or perjury, or within six months of the entry of a court order or judgment for child custody, visitation or support based on the declaration.
- (4) If the declaration was signed after January 1, 2020 and you signed the voluntary declaration: within a two-year period commencing with the effective date of the voluntary declaration. (If both parents were 18 years or older when they signed the declaration, this is the date that the declaration was filed with the Department of Child Support Services.)

(Note: If you are one of the people who signed the voluntary declaration and it was signed on or after January 1, 2020, it can only be canceled (set aside) because of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact.)

This motion may not be filed if any of the following conditions apply:

The parentage judgment resulted from a divorce, legal separation, or nullity.

The marital presumption contained in Family Code section 7540 applies. (The marital presumption means if the parents are married and living as spouses at the time of conception and birth, a child is legally considered to be a child of the marriage.)

There is a voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity and there is no basis to cancel (set aside) the voluntary declaration.

There is another California judgment of parentage in a different case for the same previously established father and child, unless both parentage judgments qualify for this motion and you filed a motion in each case.

The parentage judgment was not issued in California.

The parentage judgment is based on genetic tests that were conducted before the judgment and that indicated the previously established father is the biological father of the child.

The judgment is based on an adoption.

The child was conceived by artificial insemination and the judgment is based on Family Code section 7613.

The child was conceived under a surrogacy agreement.

The completed motion and a blank *Response to Notice of Motion to Cancel (Set Aside) Judgment of Parentage (form FL-276) must be served on the following, if applicable:

- A previously established mother;
- A previously established father;
- The child's guardian ad litem, if any; and
- The local child support agency (LCSA) if it is providing services.

GENETIC TESTING

In most cases, genetic testing will be required. If the LCSA is providing services, the LCSA will pay for and coordinate the genetic testing.

If you receive an administrative order for genetic testing from the LCSA, you may file a motion with the court seeking relief from the LCSA genetic testing order. However, the court may order participation in genetic testing.

If any person refuses to submit to genetic testing after receipt of the LCSA order for genetic testing, or fails to seek relief from the court before the scheduled test date or within 10 days after the scheduled test date, the court may resolve the question of parentage against that person or enforce the LCSA order if the rights of others or the interest of justice so require.

The moving party is not required to present evidence of genetic testing indicating that the previously established father is not the genetic father of the child in order to bring this motion.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

An adult child may be included when completing forms FL-272 and FL-273.

A guardian ad litem may be appointed by the court to represent the best interest of the child.

If the previously established father is found not to be the biological father of the child, the court may still deny this motion if it determines it is in the best interest of the child to do so.

If the court grants this motion to set aside the parentage judgment, the previously established father has no right of reimbursement of any support paid before the granting of the motion.

1 USE Request for Order (form FL-300):

- To schedule a court hearing and ask the court to make new orders or to change orders in your case. The request can be about child custody, visitation (parenting time), child support, spousal or partner support, property, finances, attorney’s fees and costs, or other matters.
- To change or end the domestic violence restraining orders granted by the court in Restraining Order After Hearing (form DV-130). See How Do I Ask to Change or End a Domestic Violence Restraining Order (form DV-400-INFO) for more information.

2 DO NOT USE Request for Order (form FL-300):

- Before you have filed a Petition to start your case (form FL-300 may be filed with the Petition).
- If you and the other party have an agreement. For information about how to write up your agreement, get it approved by the court, and filed in your case, see <http://www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-agreeFL>, speak with an attorney, or get help at your court’s Self-Help Center or Family Law Facilitator’s Office.
- When specific Judicial Council forms must be used to ask the court for orders. For example, to ask:
  - For a domestic violence restraining order, use forms DV-100, DV-109, and DV-110.
  - For an order for contempt, use form FL-410.
  - To cancel a child support order, use form FL-360 or form FL-640.
  - To cancel a voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity, use form FL-280.

4 Complete form FL-300 (Page 1)

Caption: Complete the top portion with your name, address, and telephone number, and the court address. Next, write the name of the Petitioner, Respondent, or Other Parent/Party (You must use the party names as they appear in the petition that was originally filed with the court). Then, write the case number. In the next section, check “CHANGE” if you want to change an existing order. Check “TEMPORARY EMERGENCY (EX PARTE) ORDER” if you are asking that the court make emergency orders that will be effective until the hearing date. Then, check all the boxes that apply to the orders you are requesting.

Item 1: List the name(s) of the other person(s) in your case who will receive your request. In some cases, this might include a grandparent who is joined as a party in the case, a local child support agency, or a lawyer who represents a child in the case.

Item 2: Leave this blank. The court clerk will fill in the date, time, and location of the hearing.

Item 3: This is a notice to all other parties.

Items 4–5: Leave these blank. The court will complete them if the orders are granted.

Item 6: In some counties, the court clerk will check item 6 and provide the details for your required child custody mediation or recommending counseling appointment. Other courts require the party or the party’s lawyer to make the appointment and then complete item 6 before filing form FL-300.

Ask your court’s Family Law Facilitator or Self-Help Center to find out what your court requires.

Items 7–8: Leave these blank. The court will complete them, if needed.

5 Complete form FL-300 (pages 2–4)

6 Complete additional forms and make copies

Complete any additional forms that you need to file with the Request for Order. Make at least two copies of your full packet.

Note: You may file one form FL-150 to respond to items 3, 4, and 6.

7 File your documents

Give your paperwork and the copies you made to the court clerk to process. You may take them to the clerk’s office in person, mail them, or, in some counties, you can e-file them.

The clerk will keep the original and give you back the copies you made with a court date and time stamped on the first page of the Request for Order. The procedure may be different in some courts if you are requesting temporary emergency orders.

8 Pay filing fees

A fee is due at the time of filing. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, and you do not already have a valid fee waiver order in this case, you can ask the court to waive the fee by completing and filing form FW-001, Request to Waive Court Fees and form FW-003, Order on Court Fee Waiver.

9 Temporary Emergency (Ex Parte) Orders
(nondomestic violence restraining orders)

Courts can make temporary orders in your family law case to respond to emergencies that cannot wait to be heard on the court’s regular hearing calendar.

The emergency must involve an immediate danger or irreparable harm to a party or children in the case, or an immediate loss or damage to property.

To request these orders:

- Complete form FL-300. Describe the emergency and explain why you need the temporary emergency orders before the hearing.
- Complete form FL-305 to serve as your proposed temporary orders.
- Include a declaration describing how and when you notified the other parties (or why you could not give notice) about your request and the hearing (see form FL-303).
- Complete other forms if required by your local court rules.
- Follow your court’s local procedures for reserving the day for the hearing, submitting your paperwork, and paying filing fees.

12 Who can be a “server”

You cannot serve the papers. Have someone else (who is at least 18 years old) do it. The “server” can be a friend, a relative who is not involved in your case, a sheriff, or a professional process server.

13 “Personal Service”

Personal service means that your “server” walks up to each person to be served, makes sure the right person is being served, and hand-delivers a copy of all the papers (and the blank forms). If the person served does not take the papers, the server may leave the papers near the person.

Note: Sometimes the papers may be personally served on the other party’s lawyer (if he or she has one) in the family law case.

10 General information about “service”

“Service” is the act of giving your legal papers to all persons named as parties in the case so that they know what orders you are asking for and have information about the hearing.

If the other parties are NOT properly served, the judge cannot make the orders you requested on the date of the hearing.

11 Serve the Request for Order and blank forms

The other party must be “served” with a:

- Copy of the Request for Order and all the other forms and attachments filed with the court clerk.
- Copy of any temporary emergency orders granted.
- Blank form FL-320, Responsive Declaration to Request for Order.
- Blank form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration (if you served form FL-150 or FL-155).

14 “Service by mail”

means that your “server” places copies of all the documents (and blank forms) in a sealed envelope and mails them to the address of each party being served (or to the party’s lawyer, if he or she has one).

The server must be 18 years of age or over and live or work in the county where the mailing took place.

Important! For questions about personal service or service by mail, talk with a lawyer or check with your court’s Family Law Facilitator or Self-Help Center at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/1083.htm>.

15 When to use personal service or service by mail

Personal Service

Personal service is the best way to make sure the other adults in your case are correctly served. Sometimes you must use personal service.

You must use personal service when the court:

- Ordered personal service;
- Granted temporary emergency orders;
- Does not yet have the power to make orders that apply to the other party because he or she has either NOT previously:
  - Been served with a Summons and Petition;*

OR
  - Appeared in the case by filing a:
    - a. Response to a Petition;
    - b. Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers;
    - c. Written notice of appearance;
    - d. Request to strike all or part of the Petition; or
    - e. Request to transfer the case.

*Note: A Request for Order may be served at the same time as the family law Summons and Petition.

1. After serving, the server must fill out a Proof of Personal Service (form FL-330) and give it to you. If the server needs instructions, the Information Sheet for Proof of Personal Service (form FL-330-INFO) can be provided.
2. Take the completed Proof of Personal Service form to the clerk’s office (or e-file it, if available in your court) at least 5 court days before your hearing.

Deadline: The deadline for personal service is 16 court days before the hearing date, unless the court orders a different deadline.

Service by Mail

If you are not required to use personal service, you may use service by mail.

Important! Check with your court’s Family Law Facilitator’s Office or Self-Help Center, or ask a lawyer to be sure you are allowed to use service by mail in your case.

A Request for Order to change a judgment or final order on the issue of child custody, visitation (parenting time), or child support may be served by mail if:

- The documents do not include temporary emergency orders;
- The court did not order personal service; and
- You have verified the other party’s current residence or office address. (You may use Address Verification (form FL-334).

To change a judgment or final order on any other issue, including spousal or domestic partner support, the Request for Order may need to be personally served on the other party.

1. After serving, the server must fill out a Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335) and give it to you. If the server needs instructions, the Information Sheet for Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335-INFO) can be provided.
2. Take the completed Proof of Personal Service form to the clerk’s office (or e-file it, if available in your court) at least 5 court days before your hearing.

Deadline: Unless the court orders a different time, service by mail must be completed at least 16 court days PLUS 5 calendar days before the hearing date (if service is in California). Other time lines apply for service outside of California.

16 Get ready for your hearing

- Take at least two copies of your documents and filed forms to the hearing. Include a filed Proof of Service form.
- Find more information about preparing for your hearing at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/1094.htm>.
- For information about having the other party testify in court, go to <http://www.courts.ca.gov/29283.htm>.

17 After the hearing, the order made on form FL-340, Findings and Order After Hearing, must be filed and served.

18 Do you have questions or need help?

- Find a lawyer through your local bar association, the State Bar of California at <http://calbar.ca.gov>, or the Lawyer Referral Service at 1-866-442-2529.

Hearing by Court Commissioner

This case may be referred to a court commissioner for hearing. By law, court commissioners do not have the authority to issue final orders and judgments in contested cases unless they are acting as temporary judges. The court commissioner in your case will act as a temporary judge unless, before the hearing, you or any other party objects to the commissioner acting as a temporary judge. You can object to the commissioner acting as a temporary judge in one of two ways: (1) by telling the commissioner in court, at the start of your hearing, that you object or (2) by delivering a written objection to the court clerk. You must object before the hearing in your case begins. You do not have to give a reason for your objection. The court commissioner may still hear your case to make findings and a recommended order. If you do not like the recommended order, you must object to it within 10 court days in writing (use Notice of Objection (form FL-666); otherwise, the recommended order will become a final order of the court). If you object to the recommended order, a judge will make a temporary order and set a new hearing.

Family Law Facilitator

Each superior court has a family law facilitator's office to provide education, information, and assistance to parents who have child support issues. The basic duties of the family law facilitator include:

- Providing educational materials;
- Distributing court forms;
- Providing assistance in completing forms;
- Preparing child support guideline calculations; and
- Providing referrals to the local child support agency, family court services, and other community agencies.

The family law facilitator is a neutral person whose services are available to any person who is NOT represented by an attorney. Both parties in the same case may receive assistance from the family law facilitator. There is no attorney-client privilege between the family law facilitator and any person assisted by the family law facilitator, and matters discussed with the family law facilitator are not confidential. No person can be represented by the family law facilitator.

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

NOTICE to the defendant/respondent: The proposed Judgment Regarding Parental Obligations will be entered against you unless you file your written Answer to Complaint or Supplemental Complaint Regarding Parental Obligations (form FL-610) with the court clerk within 30 days of the date you were served with the Complaint. The proposed Judgment will be entered whether or not you have a lawyer. If you were served with a form telling you the date of a court hearing, you should go to court on that date. An order may be entered without your input if you do not attend the hearing.

AVISO para el acusado: El FALLO propuesto entrará en efecto contra usted, a menos que dentro de 30 días desde cuando recibió notificación de la DEMANDA, usted registre por escrito una RESPUESTA A DEMANDA o DEMANDA SUPLEMENTAL RESPECTO A OBLIGACIONES PATERNAS (Gubernamental) (formulario 610). El FALLO propuesto entrará en efecto contra usted, tenga o no tenga usted un abogado. Si le dieron notificación con un formulario que especifica una fecha de audiencia, usted tiene que presentarse al tribunal en esa fecha. Si no asiste a la audiencia, una orden judicial podrá emitirse sin considerar su punto de vista.

PETITIONER/PLAINTIFF:  RESPONDENT/DEFENDANT:  OTHER PARENT:	CASE NUMBER:

NOTICE TO BOTH PARENTS

The local child support agency has sued both of you to determine whether you are the parents of the children listed and if one or both of you should be ordered to pay child support. The local child support agency does not represent any individual in this lawsuit, including either parent or the children. Carefully read this statement and the other papers that you received.

You have the right to be represented by a lawyer. If you dispute that you are the parent of the children listed in the Complaint and you do not have enough money for a lawyer, you may ask the court to appoint a lawyer to represent you on the issue of parentage.

Other information about court-appointed lawyers (specify):

A blank Answer to Complaint or Supplemental Complaint Regarding Parental Obligations (form FL-610) is included in the papers that were served on you. If you did not receive an Answer form or if you would like another copy, you may get one from the local child support agency, the court clerk's office, or the family law facilitator. The family law facilitator can assist you in filling out the Answer form. You must file your Answer form with the court clerk within 30 days of the date you were served with the Complaint whether or not you obtain an attorney.

Settling Out of Court

You may contact the local child support agency to try to work out a settlement agreement. However, you must still file an Answer form within 30 days. If you and the local child support agency can reach an agreement regarding the requests made in the Complaint, you may sign a settlement agreement called a stipulation. By signing a stipulation, you are agreeing to give up your rights explained in this statement, you are agreeing that you are the parent of the children listed in the Complaint, and you are agreeing to obey all of the terms of the stipulation. The stipulation will become a court order that you must obey.

Going to Court

If you file your Answer form, you have the right to a court hearing, to subpoena witnesses, to ask questions of any witness against you, and to present evidence on your behalf. Genetic testing may be performed if the defendant questions parentage of the children listed in the Complaint. If the defendant refuses to cooperate in the genetic testing process, the issue of parentage may be resolved against the defendant. The costs of the genetic testing may be charged to one of you.

Earnings Assignment

All orders for support must contain an earnings assignment. If you are obligated to pay support, this assignment will require your employer or other payor to deduct support payments from your salary or earnings and send the payments to the local child support agency. Your employer may also be required to enroll your children in a health insurance plan and deduct the cost from your salary or earnings.

Any amounts you owe may be collected from your property, whether or not you are current in your payments toward past due support. Collection may be made by taking money owed to you by the state or federal government (such as tax refunds, unemployment and disability benefits, and lottery winnings), by taking property you own, by placing a lien on your property, or by any other lawful means. You may be fined or imprisoned if you fail to pay support as ordered.

If the local child support agency does not know how much money the obligor (parent asked to pay support) earns, the obligor is presumed to earn enough money to pay the amounts stated in item 6b of the proposed Judgment Regarding Parental Obligations (form FL-630).

PETITIONER/PLAINTIFF:  RESPONDENT/DEFENDANT:  OTHER PARENT:	CASE NUMBER:

Other Important Information

Both parents should tell the local child support agency everything they know about the other parent's earnings and assets.

The defendant is always a party to this action. If the other parent has requested or is receiving services from the local child support agency, that parent will become a party to the lawsuit filed by the local child support agency after the initial support order or medical support order is entered by the court. After the other parent has become a party to the lawsuit, either parent may then ask the court to decide issues concerning support, custody, visitation, and restraining orders (domestic violence). No other issues may be raised in this lawsuit. Either parent may go to court to modify the court order. The local child support agency cannot bring proceedings to establish or modify custody, visitation, or restraining orders.

After the other parent has become a party to the lawsuit, either parent may go to court to enforce the existing order against the other, but must first notify the local child support agency as required by law. The local child support agency is allowed 30 days to determine whether or not a parent will be permitted to proceed with the enforcement action against the other parent. The local child support agency may deny a parent permission to proceed if it is currently taking enforcement action or if the action by a parent would interfere with an investigation. If the local child support agency does not respond to the notice by the parent seeking enforcement within 30 days or if the local child support agency notifies the parent seeking enforcement that the enforcement action can proceed, the parent may then file the enforcement action as long as all support is paid through the local child support agency.

If the custodial person receives public assistance, the local child support agency may agree to settle any parentage or support issue in this lawsuit without providing advance notice to the custodial person. A child support agency may not settle any child support issue without the consent of any parent who is an applicant for child support services and who does not receive public assistance.

The local child support agency is required, under section 466(a)(13) of the Social Security Act, to place in the records pertaining to child support the social security number of any individual who is subject to a divorce decree, support order, or parentage determination or acknowledgment. This information is mandatory and will be kept on file at the local child support agency.

INFORMATION SHEET FOR ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

Please follow these instructions to complete the Answer to Complaint or Supplemental Complaint Regarding Parental Obligations (form FL-610) if you do not have an attorney to represent you. Your attorney, if you have one, should complete this form.

You must file the completed Answer and attachments with the court clerk within 30 days of the date you received the Summons and Complaint (form FL-600). The address of the court clerk is the same as the one shown for the Superior Court on the Summons and Complaint (form FL-600). You may have to pay a filing fee. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, contact the court clerk to obtain forms to apply for a waiver of court fees. Keep two copies of the filed Answer form and its attachments. Serve one copy on the local child support agency and keep the other copy for your records. (See Information Sheet for Service of Process (form FL-611).)

Upon receipt of your filed Answer, the local child support agency will set a court hearing on this matter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE ANSWER FORM (TYPE OR PRINT FORM IN BLACK INK):

Front page, first box, top of form, left side. Print your name, address, and telephone number in this box if they are not already there.

1. For each child listed on the Answer form, you must check the "yes" box if you agree that you are that child's parent, or check the "no" box if you do not think or are not sure whether you are that child's parent. You must write in the name of each child listed in the Summons and Complaint (form FL-600) if your Answer form does not include the names of any children.

NOTE: Checking the "no" box does not satisfy the requirements needed to set aside any voluntary declaration of parentage or paternity which you may have signed (Family Code sections 7576, 7577).

2. If you have checked a "no" box in answer to number 1 above, you must request genetic testing to determine whether you or the other parent is the parent. The local child support agency will tell you when and where to go for the test. The local child support agency will pay for the cost of the test now. If the court decides the test shows parentage as pleaded in the Complaint, you may have to repay this cost to the local child support agency.

b. The amount of support payable by the party ordered to pay support as calculated under the guideline is: $ _____ per month.

We agree to guideline support.

The guideline amount should be rebutted because of the following:

(1)  We have been fully informed of the guideline amount of support; we agree voluntarily to child support in the amount of $ _____ per month; the agreement is in the best interest of the children; the needs of the children will be met adequately by the agreed amount; the children are not receiving public assistance; no application for public assistance is pending; and application of the guideline would be unjust and inappropriate in this case. We understand that if the order is below the guideline, no change of circumstances need be shown for the court to raise this order to the guideline amount. If the order is above the guideline, a change of circumstances will be required to modify this order.

(2)  Other rebutting factors (specify): _____

However, the child support order will not be stopped if the person who owes support has the financial ability to pay that support while in jail, prison, or an institution. It will also not be stopped if the reason the person is in jail, prison, or an institution is because the person didn't pay court ordered child support or committed domestic violence against the supported person or child. The child support order starts again on the first day of the month after the person is released from jail, prison, or an institution.

f.  The parent ordered to pay support  The parent receiving support must (1) provide and maintain health insurance coverage for the children if available at no or reasonable cost, and keep the local child support agency informed of the availability of the coverage (the cost is presumed to be reasonable if it does not exceed 5 percent of gross income to add a child); (2) if health insurance is not available, provide coverage when it becomes available; (3) within 20 days of the local child support agency's request, complete and return a health insurance form; (4) provide to the local child support agency all information and forms necessary to obtain health-care services for the children; (5) present any claim to secure payment or reimbursement to the other parent or caretaker who incurs costs for health-care services for the children; and (6) assign any rights to reimbursement to the other parent or caretaker who incurs costs for health-care services for the children. The parent ordered to provide health insurance must seek continuation of coverage for the child after the child attains the age when the child is no longer considered eligible for coverage as a dependent under the insurance contract, if the child is incapable of self-sustaining employment because of a physically or mentally disabling injury, illness, or condition and is chiefly dependent upon the parent providing health insurance for support and maintenance.
