Executive Summary and Origin

The Civil and Small Claims Advisory Committee recommends the revision of 18 of the council's Gun Violence forms to implement statutory changes in Assembly Bill 1057 (Stats. 2021, ch. 682) and Senate Bill 538 (Stats. 2021, ch. 686) and to make other necessary changes to accurately reflect current law. Assembly Bill 1057 amends the definition of "firearms" for the purpose of gun violence restraining orders to include certain firearm parts. Senate Bill 538 permits parties and witnesses to attend hearings on gun violence restraining orders remotely. The proposal incorporates these new provisions into the council's forms and makes other minor changes to gun violence protective order forms.

Background

In October 2021 the Legislature enacted two bills that significantly amended the statutory provisions governing gun violence restraining orders.

This proposal has not been approved by the Judicial Council and is not intended to represent the views of the council, its Rules Committee, or its Legislation Committee. It is circulated for comment purposes only.

First, Assembly Bill 1057 (Stats. 2021, ch. 682)¹ expanded the definition of “firearms” to include “a firearm precursor part,” as defined in Penal Code section 16531,² for the purposes of gun violence restraining orders. (§ 16520(h), effective July 1, 2022.)³ According to legislative analysis, the bill aims to include so-called ghost guns, or unserialized and untraceable firearms that can be bought online and assembled at home, with existing firearms and ammunition that can be seized and prohibited through a gun violence restraining order.

Second, Senate Bill 538 (Stats. 2021, ch. 686)⁴ expands the provisions concerning gun violence restraining orders regarding electronic filing and remote appearances. Specifically, SB 538 provides that by July 1, 2023, courts that receive gun violence restraining order petitions “shall permit those petitions to be submitted electronically” and “shall develop local rules and instructions for electronic filing.” (§ 18122.) Additionally, effective January 1, 2022, any “party or witness may appear remotely at the hearing on a petition for a gun violence restraining order” and courts must similarly develop local rules and instructions about doing so. (§ 18123.) Each superior court is required to post the requisite local rules and instructions to their website and also provide a staffed telephone number for the public to call for information.

The Proposal

This proposal recommends the revision of gun violence restraining order forms. The changes are needed for the forms to conform to the provisions of AB 1057 and SB 538 and to update information on the forms regarding gender, disability, and those who may serve as interpreters. The proposed revised forms include the following:

- Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002);
- Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-009);
- Response to Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form GV-020);
- How Can I Respond to a Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order? (form GV-020-INFO);
- Gun Violence Restraining Order After Hearing on EPO-002 (form GV-030);
- Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-100);
- Can a Gun Violence Restraining Order Help Me? (form GV-100-INFO);
- Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109);
- Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-110);
- Order on Request to Continue Hearing (form GV-116);

¹ AB 1057 available at https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billTextClient.xhtml?bill_id=202120220AB1057.

² All further statutory citations are to the Penal Code unless otherwise stated.

⁴ SB 538 available at https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billTextClient.xhtml?bill_id=202120220SB538.

- Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120);
- How Can I Respond to a Petition for a Gun Violence Restraining Order? (form GV-120-INFO);
- Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order and Surrender of Firearms (form GV-125);
- Gun Violence Restraining Order After Hearing or Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order (GV-130);
- Notice of Hearing on Request to Renew Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-710);
- Order on Request to Renew Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-730);
- Proof of Firearms, Ammunition, and Magazines Turned In, Sold, or Stored (GV-800), retitled Proof of Surrender of Firearms and Firearm-Related Items; and
- How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearms, Ammunition, or Magazines? (form GV-800-INFO), retitled How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines?

Revisions relating to the definition of “firearms”

Explaining “firearm parts”

Given the expanded definition of “firearms” under AB 1057, the committee recommends adding the term “firearm parts” and an explanation of that term to each form in this proposal where the prohibited items are listed. For example, the second paragraph of item 2 on proposed revised form EPO-002 includes the following language: “firearm parts (any receiver, frame, or unfinished receiver/frame as defined in Penal Code section 16531.”⁵ The notices to the restrained person on page 2 of form EPO-002 contain similar language. Because finished receivers and frames are technically defined as “firearms” under section 16520(b)(7) and unfinished receivers and frames are technically defined as “firearm precursor parts” under section 16520(h), all unfinished and finished receivers and frames are prohibited items for restrained parties under a gun violence restraining order. Including receivers and frames, whether finished or unfinished, as “firearm parts” on the form is clearer and more intuitive than trying to explain what a “precursor part” is and that a finished frame is technically not a firearm part, but a firearm itself.

Although almost all the forms in the proposal include the additional language in item 2 of EPO-002, there are a couple variations of the language. First, the information sheets in the proposal (forms GV-020-INFO, GV-100-INFO, GV-120-INFO, and GV-800-INFO) also use the nomenclature “ghost guns” in the explanation of “firearm parts.” Additionally, three of the court order forms in the proposal (forms GV-030, GV-110, and GV-130) and three information sheets (forms GV-020-INFO, GV-100-INFO, and GV-800-INFO) provide the above explanation of “firearm parts” in a new subitem listing all “prohibited items” (firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines). Subsequent mentions of the prohibited items in the forms refer to “the prohibited items” or “the prohibited items listed in item 6b [or 7b]” rather than listing firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines.

Form GV-800

The revisions to form GV-800, which for spacing reasons the committee is recommending be retitled Proof of Surrender of Firearms and Firearm-Related Items, contain revisions in addition to the ones described above regarding the inclusion of “firearm parts.” The committee recommends reformatting the form so that all items that need to be completed by each user are listed together. That is to say, all the items that the restrained person completes are listed on pages 1 and 2, the item for a licensed gun dealer to complete is on page 3, and the item for law enforcement to complete is on page 4. The committee asks for comments on whether this reorganization is helpful for the various users, or whether having separate parallel items form gun dealers and law enforcement makes the form, now longer, more difficult to use.

The form otherwise retains all the notices and required information on the current form GV-800.⁶ The committee also included check boxes on the form describing the status of each surrendered item—whether it is sold or stored, in the item for gun dealers; or whether stored or seized (i.e., not to be returned) in the item for law enforcement agencies.⁷ The committee recommends minor revisions for clarity to item 4 on the proposed form, adding “or other proof” in item 4a, as restrained persons may file documents other than form GV-800 to prove they have obeyed the court’s order. The committee also recommends eliminating the second question posed in item 8 on current form GV-800 as it is duplicative of the other requests for information. For ease of use, columns have been added to the corresponding information sheet, How Do I Turn In, Sell, or Store My Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines? (form GV-800-INFO).

Revisions relating to remote appearances

In addition to revisions to include “firearm parts” and an explanation of that term, revisions to gun violence restraining order forms are also needed to implement SB 538, which allows parties and witnesses to appear at hearings on gun violence restraining orders remotely. Accordingly, the committee recommends including additional information about remote appearances on the following forms: form EPO-002, the notice of hearing forms (GV-009 and GV-109), three information sheets (forms GV-020-INFO, GV-100-INFO, and GV-120-INFO), and the order on request to continue the hearing (form GV-116). All of those proposed revised forms explain that the parties may attend the hearing remotely and advise the parties to check the court’s website for more information. Where space permits, those forms provide “phone and videoconference”

⁶ Note that the Serial Number column heading in items 6f and 7f on form GV-800 now includes “if there is one” because firearm parts may not have serial numbers. Also note that items 6g and 7g include both “ammunition” and “magazines” because section 18100(b) includes a “magazine” in the definition of “ammunition”; combining these terms ensures that items 6 and 7 do not take up more than a single individual page, respectively.

⁷ The committee asks for comments on whether these terms are useful, appropriate, and can be completed at the time the receipt is prepared.

as examples of remote attendance and also provide a link to the Find Your Court webpage on the California Courts website.⁸ Conforming changes, such as using “attend” in lieu of “go to” the hearing and referencing the ability to file papers electronically were also made to the applicable information sheets.⁹

Other revisions

Gender

The forms in the proposal that collect identifying information about the restrained party also contain minor revisions relating to gender. Specifically, item 1 on form EPO-002 and item 2 on forms GV-030, GV-110, and GV-130 all refer to “gender” as opposed to “sex” and provide a “nonbinary” option and check box. Such revisions are consistent with the Department of Justice procedures to register a protective order into the law enforcement database known as CLETS (California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System).

Interpreters

The current language about interpreters on forms GV-020-INFO, GV-100-INFO, and GV-120-INFO is outdated, stating that somebody over age 18 and not involved in the case may serve as an interpreter. However, interpreters must be certified or registered. (Gov. Code, § 68561.) The committee thus recommends that those forms contain the following information regarding interpreters after a sentence directing filers to ask the clerk if an interpreter is available: “You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, see www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-interpreter.htm.” The URL provided in the proposed text links to the “Court Interpreters” webpage on the California Courts website, which is translated into several languages that are accessible via links at the top of the webpage.

Disability

Several forms within this proposal also contain an outdated item with regard to requests for accommodations. Form MC-410, Request for Accommodations by Persons with Disabilities and Response, is now titled Disability Accommodation Request. The name of the form has been updated on forms GV-109 and GV-116. Additionally, the committee proposes broadening the language on the applicable information sheets in the proposal (GV-020-INFO, GV-100-INFO, and GV-120-INFO) to include reference to “disabilities” as opposed to just hearing disabilities, and to also reference the information sheet about requesting court accommodations, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court (form MC-410-INFO).

⁸ Note that while the relevant information about attending hearings remotely is on the first page of forms GV-009 and GV-109, the committee recommends including such information on page 3 of form GV-116. The committee found it important to retain the existing information about temporary restraining orders on the first page of form GV-116 and accordingly there was insufficient space to also include information about attending hearings remotely.

Alternatives Considered

Because AB 1057 and SB 538 made significant and substantial changes to the procedures and definitions concerning gun violence restraining orders, the committee determined it must act and that taking no action would be inappropriate. The committee also determined it would be inappropriate to not take action to update the information regarding interpreters on the forms.

In addition to this proposal, the committee considered only minor revisions to form GV-800 to add “firearm parts” and the explanation of the term without reformatting it. However, the committee concluded that the reformatted form would be easier to understand by the various users of the form.

In proposing revisions relating to remote appearances, the committee also considered including space for the clerk to fill in information for the local court website and phone number with information about remote attendance on forms GV-009 and GV-109. The committee determined, however, that doing so would add significant additional burdens to the clerk’s office and offer little additional value as compared to instructing litigants to go to the court’s website via the statewide webpage.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

Most of the impacts arising from these new laws—including education of judicial officers, staff, and justice partners as to the new provisions—are a result of the statutes, not the forms proposal. The committee anticipates that this proposal will result in some costs incurred by courts to incorporate new forms into their paper or electronic processes and to train court staff. However, all the revised forms are intended to assist courts in dealing with the impact of the legislation by explaining the meaning of “firearm parts” on the forms and directing litigants to check the court’s website for more information about remote appearances.

Request for Specific Comments

In addition to comments on the proposal as a whole, the advisory committee is interested in comments on the following:

- Does the proposal appropriately address the stated purpose?
- Are the check boxes in items 6 and 7 of form GV-800 for the status of each surrendered item (sold, stored, or seized) helpful? Are “sold,” “stored,” and “seized” the correct statuses or are there other, preferable terms?
- Is the reorganization of form GV-800, so that there are now separate items to be completed by gun dealers (item 6) and law enforcement agencies (Item 7), rather than one item that could be completed by either, helpful? Or is a shorter form preferable?

The advisory committee also seeks comments from courts on the following cost and implementation matters:

- Would the proposal provide cost savings? If so, please quantify.
- What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems?
- Would 3 months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date provide sufficient time for implementation?
- How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes?

GUN VIOLENCE EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDER WARNINGS AND INFORMATION

EPO-002

TO THE RESTRAINED PERSON: You are prohibited from owning, possessing, purchasing, receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive a firearm, a firearm part (any receiver, frame, or unfinished receiver/frame), ammunition, or a magazine. (Pen. Code, §§ 16531 & 18125 et seq.) A violation of this order is a misdemeanor punishable by a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for six months or both. (Pen. Code, §§ 19, 18205.)

Within 24 hours of receipt of this order, you must turn in all items listed above to a law enforcement agency or sell them to or store them with a licensed firearms dealer until the expiration of this order. (Pen. Code, § 18125 et seq.) A receipt proving surrender, sale, or storage must be filed with the court within 48 hours of receipt of this order, or on the next court business day if the 48-hour period ends on a day when the court is closed. You must also file the receipt with the law enforcement agency that served you with this Order. You may use Form GV-800, Proof of Surrender of Firearms and Firearm-Related Items.

This Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order is effective when made. It will last until the date and time in item 3 on the front. The court will hold a hearing within 21 days to determine if a longer-term order should be issued. If the date and time are not stated in item 4 on the front, you will get a notice with the date and time of the hearing in the mail at the residential address listed on page 1 of this form. If you would like to respond to this order in writing you must use Form GV-020, Response to Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order. A family member, employer, coworker, teacher, or school administrator may also seek a more permanent restraining order from the court.

If you violate this order, you will also be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, a firearm, firearm part (any receiver, frame, or unfinished receiver/frame), ammunition, or magazine for an additional five-year period, to begin on the expiration of the more permanent gun violence restraining order. (Pen. Code, §§ 16531 & 18205.)

This protective order must be enforced by all law enforcement officers in the state of California who are aware of it or shown a copy of it. The terms and conditions of this order remain enforceable regardless of the acts or any agreement of the parties; it may be changed only by order of the court.

A LA PERSONA RESTRINGIDA: Tiene prohibido ser dueño de, o poseer, comprar, recibir, o tratar de comprar o recibir un arma de fuego, componentes de armas de fuego (todo recibidor, armazón, o recibidor/armazón inacabado), municiones o cargadores. (Código Penal, §§ 16531 & 18125, y siguientes). Una violación de esta orden es un delito menor que está sujeta a una multa de $1000 o encarcelamiento de seis meses o ambos. (Código Penal, §§ 19 y 18205.)

Dentro de las 24 horas de recibir esta orden, tiene que entregar todos los artículos indicados arriba a una agencia del orden público o venderlos a un comerciante de armas autorizado, o almacenarlos con el mismo hasta el vencimiento de esta orden. (Código Penal, §§ 18125 y siguientes). También tiene que presentar el recibo a la agencia del orden público que le hizo la entrega legal de esta Orden. Se puede usar el formulario GV-800, Prueba de entrega de armas de fuego y artículos relacionados, por este propósito. Esta orden de protección de emergencia de armas de fuego entra en vigencia en el momento en que se emite. Durará hasta la fecha y hora indicadas en el punto 3 de la primera página. Se realizará una audiencia dentro de 21 días para determinar si es necesario emitir una orden que dure por más tiempo. Si la fecha y la hora no se indican en el punto 4 de la primera página, recibirá un aviso con la fecha y la hora de la audiencia por correo a la dirección residencial indicada en la primera página. Si desea responder a esta orden por escrito, tiene que usar el formulario GV-020, Respuesta a la orden de protección de emergencia de armas de fuego. Un miembro de su familia, su empleador, un colega del trabajo, un maestro o profesor, o administrador educativo también puede solicitar al tribunal una orden de restricción más permanente.

Si contraviene esta orden de restricción, se le prohibirá tener en su posesión o control, comprar, poseer o recibir, o tratar de comprar o recibir un arma de fuego, componentes de armas de fuego (todo recibidor, armazón, o recibidor/armazón inacabado), municiones o cargadores por otro periodo de cinco años más, comenzando a partir del vencimiento de la orden de restricción de armas de fuego más permanente. (Código Penal, §§ 16531 & 18205.)

Todo agente del orden público del estado de California que tenga conocimiento de la orden o a quien se le muestre una copia de la misma deberá hacer cumplir esta orden de protección. Los términos y condiciones de esta orden se podrán hacer cumplir independientemente de las acciones de las partes; solo la corte podrá cambiar esta orden.

To law enforcement: The Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order must be served on the restrained person by the officer if the restrained person can reasonably be located. Ask the restrained person if he or she has any firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control. A copy must be filed with the court as soon as practicable, but not later than three court days, after issuance, so a hearing can be set, if one was not already scheduled. If the court did not give you a hearing date when issuing the order (to put in item 4 on the front), the court will set a hearing within 21 days and will provide you with notice of the hearing. Also, the officer must have the order entered into the computer database system for protective and restraining orders maintained by the Department of Justice.

The provisions in this temporary Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in another existing protective order remain in effect.

You must obey the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order until the expiration date. At the hearing, the court may make an order against you for a period of time between 1–5 years.

3 Gun Violence Restraining Order

I do not agree that a gun violence restraining order should be extended for 1–5 years (explain):

Check here if there is not enough space above for your answer. Put your complete answer on an attached sheet of paper and write "Attachment 3—Reasons I Disagree" as a title. You may use form MC-025, Attachment.

What is a Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002)?

It is a court order requested by law enforcement that prohibits someone from having any of the following prohibited items:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, including any receiver, frame, or unfinished receiver/frame as defined in Penal Code Section 16531, also called “ghost guns”;
- Ammunition; and
- Magazines (any ammunition feeding device).

The person must surrender all prohibited items listed above that they currently own.

Who can ask for a gun violence emergency protective order?

The gun violence emergency protective order must have been requested by a law enforcement officer and was issued by a judicial officer based on the statements made under penalty of perjury in the protective order.

I've been served with a Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) and a Notice of Court Hearing. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing or form EPO-002 tells you when to appear for court and where the court is located. If you want to attend the hearing remotely, such as by phone or videoconference, check your local court's website for instructions and availability. Follow the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) prohibiting you from having any prohibited items listed above and requiring you to surrender, sell, or store any prohibited items that you currently own or possess. You must obey the order until the expiration date on the form.

What if I don't obey the emergency protective order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine. You may also be prohibited for a longer period of time from having access to firearms, ammunition, and other items.

What if I don't want the order to be extended?

If you disagree with the order that has been issued and do not want the court to extend it for a longer time, fill out Response to Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form GV-020), before your hearing date. File the form with the court and serve it on the requesting law enforcement agency. You can get the form from legal publishers or on the Internet at www.courts.ca.gov. You also may be able to find it at your local courthouse or county law library.

Will I have to pay a filing fee?

No.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of the completed Response to Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form GV-020) to the law enforcement agency that issued the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002). (This is called “service by mail.”)

The person who serves the form by mail must fill out Proof of Service by Mail (form GV-025). Have the person who did the mailing sign the original form GV-025. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Should I attend the court hearing?

Yes. You should attend the hearing listed on the Notice of Court Hearing or the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002). You can do so remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference, or go to court in person. If you do not attend the hearing, the judge can extend the order against you for a period of time between 1-5 years without hearing from you.

Will I see the person who asked for the court order at the court hearing?

It's possible the law enforcement officer may appear at the court hearing.

Can I attend the court hearing remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference?

Yes. Remote appearances are permitted for parties and witnesses. Check with your local court for instructions on how to appear remotely. Information is also available on the court's website, which you can find at www.courts.ca.gov/find-my-court.htm.

What if I need help to understand English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-interpreter.htm.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. (You can use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose.)

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

How long does the order last?

The Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) will last until the expiration date listed on the front of the form in item 3. The court will decide at the hearing whether to issue a gun violence restraining order that can last for a period of time between 1-5 years.

 - (3) The court has received credible information that the Restrained Person owns or possesses one or more firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or one or more magazines.
 - (4) The facts as stated in the Gun Violence Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-002) and supporting documents submitted at the time of the hearing, which are incorporated here by reference, and for the reasons set forth below, establish sufficient grounds for the issuance of this Order.

(You may use Proof of Surrender of Firearms and Firearm-Related Items (form GV-800) for the receipt.) You must also file a copy of the receipt with the law enforcement agency that served you with this order. FAILURE TO FILE THIS RECEIPT IS A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER.

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Party

To the restrained person: This order will last until the expiration date and time noted on page 1. If you have not done so already, you must surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that you own or possess in accordance with section 18120 of the Penal Code. You may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm, ammunition, or magazine, while this Order is in effect. Pursuant to section 18185, you have the right to request a hearing on an annual basis to terminate this Order during its effective period. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order.

This is a Court Order.

Violation of this Order is a misdemeanor punishable by a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for six months or both. (Pen. Code, §§ 19, 18205.) If you violate this Order, you will be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, any prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, for a period of up to five years. This Order must be enforced by any law enforcement officer in the State of California who is aware of or shown a copy of this Order. The Order remains enforceable regardless of the acts of the parties; it may be terminated only by an order of the court.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, or has custody or control of any of those items that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use Form GV-200 for this purpose.
- Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Duties of Agency on Surrender of Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, and Magazines

The law enforcement agency that has received the surrendered prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, must do the following:

- Retain the prohibited items until the expiration of this Order or of any other gun violence restraining order issued by the court.
- On the expiration of this order or of any later gun violence restraining order issued by the court, return the prohibited items to the Restrained Person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850). Section 34000 provides for the sale or destruction of any unclaimed items.
- If someone other than the Restrained Person claims title to any of the prohibited items surrendered, determine whether that person is the lawful owner. If so, return the prohibited items to that person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850).

Enforcing This Order

The law enforcement officer should determine if the Restrained Person had notice of the order. Consider the Restrained Person "served" (given notice) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the proof of service or confirms that the proof of service is on file;
- The Restrained Person was informed of the order by an officer; or
- Item 7a is checked, the Restrained Person attended the hearing.

This is a Court Order.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the respondent cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it (see above: Duties of Officer Serving This Order).

The provisions in this Gun Violence Restraining Order After Hearing on EPO-002 do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in another existing protective order remain in effect.

These instructions cannot cover all of the questions that may arise in a particular case. If you do not know what to do to protect your rights, you should see a lawyer or a self-help center.

What is a gun violence restraining order?

It is a court order that temporarily prohibits someone from having any of the following items:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, including finished or unfinished receivers and frames, also called “ghost guns”;
- Ammunition; and
- Magazines (any ammunition feeding device).

The person must surrender any prohibited items listed above that that person currently owns. The police will come and remove the items or the person can store them with a licensed gun dealer while the restraining order is in effect. The restrained person also cannot buy any of the prohibited items during this time.

Can I get a gun violence restraining order against someone?

You can ask for one if you are connected to the person you think is dangerous as:

- An immediate family member;
- An employer;
- A coworker who has substantial and regular interactions with the person and has worked with them for at least a year. You must have permission from your employer to ask for the restraining order;
- An employee or teacher at a school that the person has attended in the last six months, where you have permission from a school administrator or staff member who has a supervisory role; and/or
- A law enforcement officer or law enforcement agency.

Immediate family members include:

- Your spouse or domestic partner;
- Your parents, children, siblings, grandparents, and grandchildren and their spouses, including any stepparent or stepgrandparent;
- Your spouse’s parents, children (your stepchildren), siblings, grandparents, and grandchildren; and
- Any other person who regularly resides in the household, or who, within the last six months, regularly resided in the household.

If you do not have the necessary relationship, advise a law enforcement officer of the situation. The officer may investigate and file the petition if grounds exist.

Will I have to pay a filing fee to request the order?

No.

Will the order protect me in other ways, such as keeping the person from coming near me?

No, the only order the court can make is to force the person to not have the prohibited items listed above. If you need personal protection from a family member, you should proceed under the Domestic Violence Prevention Act. See Can a Domestic Violence Restraining Order Help Me? (form DV-500-INFO) for information on how to proceed. For information on other civil restraining orders, please see www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-abuse.htm.

What forms do I need to get the order?

You must fill out the following forms:

- Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-100);
- Confidential CLETS Information (form CLETS-001);
- Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109), items 1 and 2 only; and
- Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-110), items 1 and 2 only.

You may need other local forms. Ask your self-help center or visit your court's website.

Where can I get these forms?

You can get the forms from legal publishers or on the Internet at www.courts.ca.gov. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

What do I need to do to get the order?

You must file your papers with the superior court in the county where the person to be restrained lives. Check online or ask the court how to file your request for a gun violence restraining order. (A self-help center or legal aid association may be able to assist you in filing your request.) File your forms electronically or give your forms to the clerk of the court. The court will give you a hearing date on the Notice of Court Hearing form.

How soon can I get the order?

You can ask for a Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order, which will be effective right away if granted. The court may decide whether or not to grant the temporary order based only on the facts that you have stated in your petition. If so, the court will decide within 24 hours whether or not to make the temporary order. Sometimes the court will want to examine you personally under oath. If you file in person, the clerk will tell you whether you should wait to talk to the judge or come back later to find out if the court has signed a temporary order.

If you don't ask for a temporary restraining order, you will have to wait until the hearing, at which the court will decide whether to make an order that will last for a period of time between 1–5 years.

How will the person to be restrained know about the order?

If the court issues a temporary restraining order, someone age 18 or older—not you—must personally “serve” (give) the person to be restrained a copy of the order. The server must then fill out Proof of Personal Service (form GV-200) and give it to you to file with the court. If the person to be restrained attends the hearing, no further proof of service is required. But if they do not attend the hearing, then any order issued at the hearing must also be personally served. For help with service, ask the court clerk for What Is “Proof of Personal Service”? (form GV-200-INFO). Note: A sheriff or marshal can serve the order for free.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

What do I have to prove to get the order?

You will have to convince the judge that the person to be restrained poses a significant danger in the near future of causing personal injury to himself, herself, or another person by having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving any of the prohibited items listed on page 1.

You will also have to convince the judge that a gun violence restraining order is needed to prevent personal injury to the person to be restrained or to another person because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and haven't worked, or are inadequate or inappropriate for the current circumstances.

How can I convince the judge?

You will need to give the judge specific information. You should tell the judge everything that you know about the firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines that the person to be restrained currently owns, including how many the person owns, the types, and where they are kept.

Then you will need to present facts to show that the person to be restrained is dangerous. This could be information about any threat of violence that the person to be restrained has made, any violent incident in which the person has been involved, or any crime of violence the person has committed. It could also be evidence that the person to be restrained has violated a protective order or abuses controlled substances or alcohol. It could also be evidence of the unlawful and reckless use, display, or brandishing of a firearm or the recent acquisition of a firearm. Or it could be evidence that the person to be restrained has been identified by a mental health provider as someone prohibited from purchasing, possessing or controlling any firearms.

You should include all of this information in your Petition and also be prepared to present it to the judge at the hearing.

Do I have to attend a court hearing?

Yes. Attend the hearing on the date listed on Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109).

Will I see the restrained person at the court hearing?

If the person attends the hearing, yes. If you are afraid, tell the court.

How long does the order last?

If the court makes a temporary order, it will last until your hearing date, which must be within 21 days of the date of the temporary order. If at the hearing the court issues a more permanent order, it will last for one to five years. It may be renewed for an additional one to five years.

What if the restrained person does not obey the order?

Call the police. The restrained person can be arrested and charged with a crime.

Can I agree with the restrained person to terminate the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or terminate it. The restrained person would have to file a request with the court to terminate the order.

Aa 我 What if I need help to understand English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-interpreter.htm.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

For help in your area, contact:

[Local information may be inserted.]

You can attend the hearing remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference, or go to court in person. Check with your local court for instructions on how to appear remotely. Information is also available on the court's website, which you can find here: www.courts.ca.gov/find-my-court.htm.

Can someone attend the hearing with me?

Yes. Someone can sit with you during the hearing, but that person cannot speak for you to the court. Only you or your lawyer (if you have one) can speak for you.

Do I need to bring a witness to the hearing?

Witnesses are not required, but it helps to have more proof than just your word. For example, consider bringing:

- Witnesses
- Written statements from witnesses made under oath
- Photos
- Medical or police reports
- Damaged property
- Threatening letters, emails, or telephone messages

The court may or may not let witnesses speak at the hearing. So, if possible, you should bring their written statements under oath to the hearing. (You can use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose.)

Warnings and Notices to the Respondent

To the restrained person: This Order is valid until the expiration date and time noted on page 1. You are required to surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that you own or possess in accordance with section 18120 of the Penal Code and you may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearm, ammunition, or magazines while this order is in effect. A hearing will be held on the date and at the time noted on Page 1 to determine if a more permanent gun violence restraining order should be issued. Failure to appear at the hearing may result in a court making an order against you that is valid for a period between one and five years. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that the attorney may assist you in any matter connected with the order.

Violation of this Order is a misdemeanor. If you violate this Order, you will be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, any prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, for a period of five years. This Order must be enforced by any law enforcement officer in the State of California who is aware of or shown a copy of this Order. The Order remains enforceable regardless of the acts of the parties; it may be changed only by an order of the court.

This is a Court Order.

After You Have Been Served With a Temporary Order

- Obey the order by turning in all firearms, firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines to a law enforcement agency or selling them to or storing them with a licensed gun dealer.
- Read How Can I Respond to a Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order? (form GV-120-INFO) to learn how to respond to this Order.
- If you do not oppose the petition, fill out Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order and Surrender of Firearms (form GV-125) and file it with the court clerk.
- If you disagree with the petition, fill out Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120) and file it with the court clerk.
- You must have form GV-120 served by mail on the Petitioner or the Petitioner's attorney. You cannot do this yourself. The person who does the mailing should complete and sign Proof of Service of Response by Mail (form GV-250). File the completed proof of service with the court clerk before the hearing date or bring it with you to the hearing.
- In addition to the response, you may file and have declarations served, signed by you and other persons who have personal knowledge of the facts. You may use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose. It is available from the clerk's office at the court shown on page 1 of this form or at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. If you do not know how to prepare a declaration, you should see a lawyer.
- Whether or not you file a response, you should attend the hearing. If you have any witnesses, they must also attend the hearing. You and your witnesses may attend the hearing remotely (check with your court for instructions).
- At the hearing, the judge can make a gun violence restraining order against you that lasts between one to five years. Tell the judge why you disagree with the order requested.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, or has custody or control of any that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form GV-200 for this purpose.
- Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Duties of Agency on Surrender of Firearms, Firearm Parts, Ammunition, or Magazines

The law enforcement agency that has received the surrendered prohibited items listed in item 6b, above, must do the following:

- Retain the prohibited items until the termination or expiration of this Order or of any other gun violence restraining order issued by the court.
- On the expiration of this Order or of any later gun violence restraining order issued by the court, return the prohibited items to the respondent as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850). Section 34000 provides for the sale or destruction of any unclaimed items.

This is a Court Order.

- If someone other than the Respondent claims title to any of the prohibited items surrendered, determine whether that person is the lawful owner. If so, return the prohibited items to that person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850).

Enforcing This Order

The law enforcement officer should determine if the Respondent had notice of the order. Consider the Respondent “served” (given notice) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the proof of service or confirms that the proof of service is on file; or
- The Respondent was informed of the order by an officer; or
- The officer sees a filed copy of form GV-125.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the Respondent cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it (see above: Duties of Officer Serving This Order).

The provisions in this Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in any other another existing protective order remain in effect.

What is a gun violence restraining order?

It is a court order that temporarily prohibits someone from having any guns, firearm parts, including finished or unfinished receivers and frames, also called “ghost guns,” ammunition, or magazines (any ammunition feeding device). The person must surrender all such items that the person currently owns.

I've been served with a Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109) tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-110) prohibiting you from having any guns, firearm parts, ammunition, or magazines and requiring you to surrender, sell, or store any such items that you currently own or possess. You must obey the order until the hearing.

Who can ask for a gun violence restraining order?

The petition must have been filed by a:

- Law enforcement officer or law enforcement agency,
- An employer,
- A coworker who has had “regular interactions” with you for at least a year,
- A teacher or employee of a school that you have attended in the last 6 months, or
- An immediate family member of yours.

Immediate family member is defined by this law to include people who are not blood relatives. The definition includes (1) your spouse or domestic partner; (2) your parents, children, siblings, grandparents, and grandchildren and their spouses, including any stepparent or stepgrandparent; (3) your spouses parents, children (your stepchildren), siblings, grandparents, and grandchildren; and (4) any other person who regularly resides in the household, or who, within the last six months, regularly resided in the household.

What if I don't obey the temporary order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine. You could lose access to firearms and other items for a longer period of time.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

If you disagree with the order that the Petitioner is asking for, fill out Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120) before your hearing date and file it with the court. You can get the form from legal publishers or on the Internet at www.courts.ca.gov. You also may be able to find it at your local courthouse or county law library.

What if I don't oppose the Petition?

If you agree to give up your access to firearms and your rights to own, possess, and buy guns, firearm parts, ammunition, and magazines for the time period requested in the petition, which is between one and five years, then you can fill out Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order and Surrender of Firearms (form GV-125) and check the box for item 4a. Make sure you take it to the court clerk and file it, and then mail it to the person or law enforcement agency that applied for the petition. The court will issue the gun violence restraining order before the hearing and remove the hearing from the calendar. You do not have to go to your court date, and the court will mail you a copy of the order. Make sure you check with the court to see if you have to show up for your court date.

Will I have to pay a filing fee?

No.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of completed Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120) to the person who asked for the order (or that person’s lawyer). (This is called “service by mail.”)

The person who serves the form by mail must fill out Proof of Service by Mail (form GV-250). Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free, court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Should I attend the court hearing?

Yes. You should attend the hearing on the date listed on Notice of Court Hearing (form GV-109). If you do not attend the hearing, the judge can extend the order against you for a period between one and five years without hearing from you.

You can attend the hearing by remotely, such as by telephone or videoconference, or go to court in person. Check with your local court for instructions on how to appear remotely. Information is also available on the court's website, which you can find here: www.courts.ca.gov/find-my-court.htm.

How long does the order last?

If the court issued a temporary restraining order before the hearing, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide whether to issue a gun violence restraining order that can last for one to five years.

Will I see the person who asked for the order at the court hearing?

Assume that the person who is asking for the order will attend the hearing. It is probably best not to talk to them unless the judge or that person's attorney says that you can.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. (You can use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose.)

Can I agree with the protected person to terminate the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or terminate it. You would have to file a request with the court to terminate the order.

What if I need help to understand English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. Instructions for Law Enforcement

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.

- The officer sees a copy of the proof of service or confirms that the proof of service is on file; or

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. The provisions in this Gun Violence Restraining Order After Hearing or Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-130) do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in any other existing protective order(s) remain in effect.

After I give the prohibited items to law enforcement, can I change my mind?

Yes. You are allowed to sell them to a licensed gun dealer. To do this, the gun dealer must present a bill of sale to your local law enforcement agency. The law enforcement agency will give the licensed gun dealer the firearms that you are selling.

Do I have to pay the law enforcement agency to keep the prohibited items?

You may have to pay the agency for keeping the items. Contact your local law enforcement agency and ask if a fee is charged. The agency will tell you how much you need to pay.

Do I have to prove that I have turned in, sold, or stored the prohibited items?

Yes. Within 48 hours you must file a receipt with the court and the law enforcement agency showing that you have surrendered the prohibited items to a law enforcement agency or sold them to or stored them with a licensed gun dealer. You may use Proof of Surrender of Firearms and Firearm-Related Items (form GV-800), for this purpose.
