Summary of Cases Accepted and Related Actions During Week of March 6, 2017

The California Supreme Court has announced that no cases were accepted during the week of March 6, 2017.

STATUS

#15-133 American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Southern California v. Superior Court, S227106. The court requested the parties to file supplemental letter briefs addressing the following question: Does the catchall exemption of Government Code section 6255, subdivision (a), apply to any or all of the automatic license plate reader (ALPR) data collected by real parties during the one-week period in August 2012, that is the subject of this court's review under the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code, § 6250, et seq.)?

#17-84 People v. Enriquez, S240419. The court ordered appeal F065288, which had been consolidated with appeals F065481 and F065984 in the Court of Appeal, severed and ordered further action deferred pending decision in People v. Gutierrez, S224724 (#15-73).

###

The Supreme Court of California is the state's highest court and its decisions are binding on all other California state courts. The court's primary role is to decide matters of statewide importance and to maintain uniformity in the law throughout California by reviewing matters from the six districts of the California Courts of Appeal and the fifty-eight county superior courts (the trial courts). Among its other duties, the court also decides all capital appeals and related matters and reviews both attorney and judicial disciplinary matters.
