#18-85 People v. Maldonado, S248800. (H044815; 22 Cal.App.5th 138; Santa Clara County Superior Court; C1761615.) Petition for review after the Court of Appeal affirmed a judgment of conviction of a criminal offense. The court ordered briefing deferred pending decision in In re Ricardo P., S230923 (#16-41), which presents the following issue: Did the trial court err imposing an “electronics search condition” on minor as a condition of his probation when it had no relationship to the crimes he committed but was justified on appeal as reasonably related to future criminality under People v. Olguin (2008) 45 Cal.4th 375 because it would facilitate his supervision?

STATUS

#18-80 People v. Liu, S248130. The court ordered the issue to be briefed and argued in this case limited to the first issue in the petition for review: For the purpose of determining whether a conviction for theft of access card information in violation of Penal Code section 484e, subdivision (d), is eligible to be reduced to a misdemeanor under Proposition 47 when the information has been used to obtain property, is the value of the access card information limited to the fair market value of the information itself on the black market or can the value of the property obtained by the use of the information be considered? (See People v. Romanowski (2017) 2 Cal.5th 903, 914.)

###

The Supreme Court of California is the state's highest court and its decisions are binding on all other California state courts. The court's primary role is to decide matters of statewide importance and to maintain uniformity in the law throughout California by reviewing matters from the six districts of the California Courts of Appeal and the fifty-eight county superior courts (the trial courts). Among its other duties, the court also decides all capital appeals and related matters and reviews both attorney and judicial disciplinary matters.
