Author: Judicial Council of California

Publish Date: May 6, 2020

Summary: This program is designed to assist parents who either pay or receive child support and want to ask the court for a different child support order. The program may be used in cases where there is LCSA involvement or not. Both the simplified and the full financial statements are available in the program, as well as a fee waiver request for non-LCSA cases. The program also includes instructions for service of documents, including special requirements during the COVID-19 pandemic.
