News on the Equal Access Project

We are continuing our efforts to revamp the Instructional Materials section of Equal Access. Thanks to your help, we have taken down outdated materials and have begun uploading those you have sent to us over the past few months. We are also still working on reorganizing the site to improve its usability. We will continue to provide more updates to you as we make more significant progress in this area. As always, if you have feedback you have not yet shared with us, please do so. Finally, if there are any materials you would like assistance in developing or translating, or if you want to find out what other courts have done and cannot find the information on these sites, please feel free to contact bonnie.hough@jud.ca.gov.
